

ISLANDER EAST SUPPLEMENTAL MEMORANDUM

SUPPLEMENTAL RECORD ON APPEAL

VOLUME 5

1. Denial on Remand, Connecticut Department of Environmental Protection, dated July 29, 2003.
2. Press Releases from Connecticut Attorney General Regarding Denial on Remand, dated July 30, 2003.
3. F.E.R.C. Certification of New Interstate Natural Gas Pipeline Facilities, Statement of Policy, 88 F.E.R.C. 61,227 (September 15, 1999).
4. Letter from Pat Wood, III, Chairman of the FERC, to Scott Gudes, Deputy Undersecretary for Oceans and Atmosphere, U.S. Department of Commerce, dated March 11, 2003.
5. TRC Corporation, R. Zajac, Evaluation of Benthic Impacts Associated with Islander East's Modified Offshore Construction Techniques, Report to Connecticut Department of Environmental Protection, dated February 17, 2003 (submitted to CTDEP on March 14, 2003).
6. W. Frank Bohlen, D. Cohen, and K.H. Strobel, An Investigation of Sedimentation Induced by Gas Pipeline Laying Operations in the Vicinity of the Oyster Bed Lease Areas, Milford, Connecticut, dated March 17, 1992 (prepared for Iroquois Gas Transmission System).
7. Long Island Power Authority, Minutes of the 154th Meeting, March 27, 2003.
8. Report Submitted with the Application for Site Specific Regulation of the Connecticut Portion of the Iroquois Natural Gas Transmission Pipeline, Volume 1.
9. Applied Science Associates, Inc Report, Results of SSFATE Model Simulations, Nearshore Connecticut, Long Island Sound, dated February 2003.
10. Iroquois Gas Transmission System, Application for Certificate to Environmental Compatibility and Public Need, March 25, 2002, page 193 at paragraph 1.
11. Testimony of R. Zajac before the Connecticut Siting Council, April 11, 2002.
12. Connecticut Siting Council Opinion, Docket No. 224, dated September 5, 2002.

13. W. Frank Bohlen, M.M. Howard-Strobel, and M.L. Thatcher, An Initial Evaluation of Marine Sediment Dispersion Associated with the Installation of the Islander East Natural Gas Pipeline, dated April 8, 2002 (prepared for Natural Resources Group, Inc.).
14. Transcript, Connecticut Siting Council Hearing, Docket No. 221, April 17, 2002.